

HOLOCAUST TEACHER TRAINING WORKSHOP

8:30 AM - 3:30 PM October 17, 2011 TALLAHASSEE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
THE CENTER FOR ECONOMIC & WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT (EWD)

www.holocaustresources.org

The Holocaust Teacher Training Workshop will provide teachers with knowledge and skills to help them prepare and present lessons about the Holocaust that will educate students and encourage them to develop character, compassion and civility in their daily lives.

The workshop will enhance the following for participants:

- Knowledge of the history of the Holocaust, its accurate and precise documentation, timeline of events, glossary and historical relevance to society today
- Awareness of the major critical, ethical and moral issues raised in the study of the Holocaust through workshop participation, dialogue and literature analysis
- Ability for developing sound pedagogical practices for teaching the Holocaust in all grade levels
- Familiarity with the wealth and scope of primary historical documents, literature, materials, and resources that will augment a study of the Holocaust

FS 1003.42 Required Holocaust Education Mandate
K-12 Public School Instruction

By attending this FREE workshop you will earn continuing education credits and receive FREE materials for your classroom!

Workshop Presented by: HERC

Keynote Speaker:
Alexandra Zapruder
Author of
Salvaged Pages: Young Writers' Diaries of the Holocaust

Guest Speaker:
Ela Weissberger, Holocaust Survivor
Co-Author of
The Cat with the Yellow Star

For further information contact:
hercfl@yahoo.com
Barbara Goldstein, HERC President at 850-443-9649

Breakfast & Lunch Provided