

HOLOCAUST TEACHER TRAINING WORKSHOP

October 27, 2008

8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Tallahassee Community College

The Center for Economic & Workforce Development (EWD)

Teaching the Holocaust, Human Rights and Social Responsibility

The Holocaust Teacher Training Workshop will provide teachers with knowledge and skills to help them prepare and present lessons about the Holocaust that will educate students about it and will encourage them to develop character, compassion and civility in their daily lives.

The workshop will enhance the following for participants:

- ✓ Knowledge of the history of the Holocaust, its accurate and precise documentation, timeline of events, glossary, and historical relevance to society today
- ✓ Awareness of the major critical, ethical and moral issues raised in the study of the Holocaust through workshop participation dialogue and literature analysis
- ✓ Ability for developing sound pedagogical practices for teaching the Holocaust in all grade levels, where appropriate
- ✓ Familiarity with the wealth and scope of primary historical documents, literature, materials, and resources that will augment a study of the Holocaust
- ✓ Trunk Training for Holocaust materials

For further information contact:

holocausteducationtallahassee@yahoo.com or

Barbara Goldstein, Program Co-Chair 850-443-9649

Registration Deadline October 17, 2008

By attending this Free workshop you will earn continuing education credits and receive Free materials for your classroom!

Workshop Presented by: EILEEN SHAPIRO

Holocaust Studies Program Planner

Palm Beach School District

Department of Multicultural Education

Guest Speaker: Holocaust Survivor Lisl Bogart